

MISSIONARY SHIRLEY RICHARDS (along with her late husband, Rev. Willie Richards) served as missionaries in Colombia, South America for a short time with the Wycliffe Bible Translators before moving to Liberia to serve there for 2-½ years.

As of January 2010 she has made 23 mission trips to Africa. Serving as Field Supt. For Africa for the Church of Christ (Holiness) USA, she has performed missionary service in Liberia, Ghana, Benin and Mali.

Effective July 2008 she is now officially the Retired Field Supt. For Africa. Her replacement is an outstanding Brother, Pastor Mark Kangar. For years he served as pastor of the Open Bible Church in Monrovia, Liberia. Presently he is pastoring in Holly Springs, Mississippi.

Missionary Richards lives in Beaumont, Texas, is active in her local church, Christ Mission Temple, and still actively involved in the ministries in Africa.

She enjoys being a mother of one son Edmond (wife Tricia), two grand-daughters, Celeste (age 13) and Colette (age 6).
